REGISTRATION OF CANDIDATES

All Schools should register the names of participants for various categories on the ASISC portal for the ZONAL LEVEL.

Once the names are entered with all details on the portal, there won't be any need for further registration forms for next two levels.

Member schools are to use the login credentials supplied to them by the ASISC.

The Regional Secretaries will choose the venue for both Zonal and Regional level competitions and provide data of participants to the host school/s.

The results of zonal and regional level competitions are to be uploaded to the portal by the Regional Secretaries so that the registrations of participants will be made available to next levels.

One candidate may participate only in one event as the competitions are conducted simultaneously at a venue.

Only regional secretaries are expected to communicate with the host region / school regarding registration, lodging, arrival and departure details
